The Riverhouse was the first and only venue we viewed and we were locked in!! Absolutely gorgeous venue with a combination of modern and traditional touch and it's exactly what my husband and I are looking for🥰Something intimate yet not compromising on the aesthetics, location, and coziness.

Sara and Shanice were absolute dears in coordinating and ensuring everything is in place for our special day🫶 Their prompt replies throughout the planning phase gave us extra assurance that we were in good hands. The day went by smoothly all thanks to their professional assistance!

Very good experience having our wedding luncheon at The Riverhouse.
The look and feel of the place fit what we were looking for: an oriental, historical yet with a touch of modern feel.

The food was amazing. Our guests loved it very much and they commented that certain dishes had the homecooked standard. Our favourite dishes were the crispy barramundi, soup, and the prawns.

Our coordinator, Celest, was very helpful and assisted us every step of the way. She would advise on our needs and make arrangements based on our schedule for the day.

The collaboration with the vendor, Sonderbyco, made the whole experience seamless. They helped us with the decorations, door gifts, menu placards etc. This helped us save a lot of time from not having to go and source for these ourselves.

We hosted our wedding dinner at the Riverhouse and our whole experience even up to the actual day has been amazing. Eileen patiently and clearly answered all our queries while we were torn between venues, lunch or dinner reception. Joeyun has been very approachable and helpful, answering all our enquiries and has been on top of coordinating everything even rushing down after another venues.

The food was amazing and our feedback from the food tasting was taken into consideration! Guests praised on how amazing the food has been as well as the intimate setting of the place.even though there was a slight unforeseen delay in the tea ceremony, Joeyun has been really stellar, helping to extend the courtyard usage to cover our tea ceremony, and helping to move the items between level 1&2. I highly recommend Joeyun and 1-host to others looking for a varied intimate venue for events, and hope for Joeyun to receive her due recognition.
